

I am against the proposal to expand LPFM services by eliminating or taking priority over current FM broadcast translator services. Our rural area depends on the service FM broadcast translator services provide, and the elimination of them for lower power alternatives is not sufficient for efficient communication in rural areas.